Title: Request for Information

Author: Cousteau Perron

A hastily composed note seems scratched out on a shred of a scroll, with a few abstract equations and drawings near the periphery.

Close to breakthrough, require reforged shadow iron ringmail suit(10), power crystal (5), miniaturized clockwork assembly (20), valorite keg (20), and six more verite toolkits of the usual kind. Expect delivery in three days. Usual payment protocol.

At the end, there seems to be a note added on as if in afterthought.

Have reconsidered previous offer and will pay 95% asking price for withheld schematics.
